Listen up I said darling beautiful
Yes I need a sweetheart
But this blues aint gonna change
A goddamn thing
I said darling beautiful
Yes I need a sweetheart
And my rock n rolls
Gonna change everything
Oh come on lets begin
Tell me something
Tell me something nice
Tell me something something
To ease this pain
Girl you rot my brain
Tell me something nice
Tell me something something
To ease this pain
Girl you rot my brain
And with a body like yours
You could hurt me everyday
And with a body like yours
You could hurt me everyday
Wont you open your window
And lay down your hair
I would make a ladder baby
Just to get up there
Wont you open up your door
And give me a hand
I would hold it always baby
And together well stand
Come on lend a hand
Tell me something
Tell me something nice
Tell me something something
To ease this pain
Girl you rot my brain
Tell me something nice
Tell me something something
To ease this pain
Girl you rot my brain
And with a body like yours

You could hurt me everyday
And with a body like yours
You could hurt me everyday
Tell me something
Tell me something nice
Tell me something nice
