Each one teach one, life flow grows.
Sun shines thru one, true ones glow.
Third eye no die, see long time.
Long run one ton sunshine rime.
Drink from the cup of a tribe that shines
and we shine long time.
We glide in the light, and the night's just right
for a sun shine rime.

Each one teach wise man told ya.
No hurry, no worry about the overexposure.
Bathe in the light freely is the answer.
Sunscreen no need, we opposite cancer.
Humpty dancer three left stain.
Little didya know we was down like that man,
and my brain's unfrozen son,
thanx to the chosen one.
P.A.C. left me the keys to the L. I. G. H. T.
You T.O.O., not just Shock G.
Pardon me while I SHHH.I.N.E. on thee.
Be all u can be B, graduate.
Change fate to obtain the degree.
Hustlin, rime'n, crime'n, it all counts.
Valid in this life is degree from the street.
Purposely I didn't say grinding,
demon in the substance takes man down.
First makes man smile, then makes frown,
substance takes man down low.
Home or another set, animal or object,
give to everything respect. Yes.
Purpose of the life is to not live foul.
Shock sun rime done, Moe rime now.

I breathe it and sleep it, I dream it and see it.
You can't tell me that I'll never achieve it.
First, one believes it, then makes you repeat it.
Every predicted defeat is the fuel I needed.
Drink from the cup of a tribe that shines
and we shine long time.
We glide in the light, and the night's just right
for a sun shine rime.

Check, yo
Shock drops top game, Moe come hot flame, hit block harder than rock cocaine.
Got no shame in anything that I do.
Right or wrong guarantee that my words b true.
Worry free's hard to be when your thoughts are filthy.
Mind is grimey, false streets that built me.
Yeah, boulevards are dark, so I walk blinded,
guided by the light in my heart.
Wise work smarter, dumb man work harder,
and lazy man steady say why bother.
I'm not a scholar but I watch life unfold
like last dollar in a pocket.. "Woahhh!"
Drop cash fast and expect get broke.
Treat life like sex, sometimes take slow.
Make money, save money, watch money grow.
Get in fight with bank account, leave it on swole.
Moes one ton sunshine rime now done.
Outcome: You take game now run.
Outcome: You take game now run.
Outcome: You take game now run.
OUTCOME: YOU TAKE GAME NOW RUN!

Drink from the cup of a tribe that shines
and we shine long time.
We glide in the light, and the night's just right
for a sun shine rime.
