I could remember when I was young
I didn't have a clue of what I was looking for
But I felt something deep in me
And all I could think about, was singing to a beat —
Yeah
I would sing a little too loud
But I would soon realize what it was all about

CHORUS

I'd turn on the radio
And sing way off note
It was just the music in me
I'd dream of being a star
Playing my air guitar
Right then I could clearly see
Exactly who I wanted to be

Many years have come and gone
And it's funny how that feeling remained so strong
Now I'm singing to a different beat
Cause what was once a dream is now a reality
Now before I head out on stage
I would just crack a smile and go back to that day

CHORUS

That I turned on the radio
Would sing way off note
It was just the music in me
I'd dream of being a star
Playing my air guitar
Right then I could clearly see
Exactly who I wanted to be

BRIDGE

In my heart I always knew
That GOD had plans for me

SOLO

And now I'm a superstar
Playing my real guitar
And now I can clearly see

That this is who I wanted to be
That this is who I wanted to be
Who I wanted to be
