Oh I can't believe he's never told her these things, like how shes so sweet or how she lights up a room, now she has me or maybe I just have her, but how could it be that she wants me, I turn to her when I need some lovin, but I think it's her that needs upliftin, and I never thought I would have givin my heart to anyone as smart or as lovely as her, but it kills me so see the pain that she has, it's like she raining inside with no one by her side, I wanna be the guy that's always fixing, the things in her life that seem to be missin, cause now she all I've got one look at her and my only thought, is shes amazing and crazy for thinkin she is any less then beautiful,
oh yeah, one of a kind and always on my mind, woah, she is incredible shes wonderful, woahh and my favorite part is when we danced in the dark, together our hearts couldn't tare us apart, and we may not share our favorite shows but when I think about talkin to her shes already called my phone, I think she still feels out of place, like she could vanish without a trace, so when shes down and when shes low I'll make sure that I let her know, that shes amazing and crazy for thinkin she is any less

then beautiful,

oh yeah one of a kind and always on my mind,

tell her shes incredible, shes wonderful,
woah

she thinks I just say these things because they sound nice for her to hear, but I meant everyone word, even though shes not mine anymore and I just hope she knows how great she really is,

and if she needs some remindin to time I'll be glade to refresh her mind ohh

if I ever meet the guy that took her away, I'll stop, and I'll walk right up and I'll say, oh you know I'll say, before I, I can let her go, you make sure that you let her know, that shes amazing and crazy for thinking she is any less then beautiful,

yeah
one of a kind, and always on your mind,
tell her shes incredible,
she wonderful,
irreplaceable,

and you'll never let her go oh woah.
