

My Ruin "Let It Rain"

i like the way you make me feel syrupy and clean
you have a strange effect on me loving every scream baptise this thing that burns everytime you bathe me if i confess too many sins will you still save me?
rain
rain
rain
let it rain
as beautiful as a scar there's nothing quite like you i cut myself on your lips let you lick my wounds
so southern is my saviour so sick inside my head but if i let you rescue me will i be left for dead?
rain
rain
let it rain
let it rain down on me
let it rain down on us
the sky's illumination comes from the city below
and i can taste every inch of your kiss every inch of your soul from over here
do you feel faith or do you feel fear?
