It was a long time ago
Longer now than it seems
A place that perhaps
You have seen in your dreams

Welcome to my world
Is it what you thought it would be?
I'm trapped inside this hell
Between blood queen and purgatory

A coop filled covered hall
A tattooed baby doll
I've got the devil in my corner
And Jesus on my wall

Today is an oatmeal day
I feel like a monster babe
Preacher save me with your call
And I will be your little Miss Scareall

One eye's green, one eye's blue
Demons, angels, a love that's true
Catch me as I start to fall
Let me be your little Miss Scareall

Halloween is over
But I will keep you scared
Take you to the fright side
I know, you'll come prepared

By your deadly nightshade
Turn your Christmas black
And you can be my Johnny
Homicidal maniac

Today is an oatmeal day
I feel like a monster babe
Preacher save me with your call
And I will be your little Miss Scareall

One eye's green, one eye's blue
Demons, angels, a love that's true

Catch me as I start to fall
Let me be your little Miss Scareall

Forgive me preacher
For I have sinned
It's been 3 weeks
Since my first confession

I am the one hiding under your bed
My teeth are sharp, my lips are red
I am the one hiding under your stairs
With snakes and spiders in her hair

Little Miss Scareall
Little Miss Scareall
Little Miss Scareall
Little Miss Scareall

Little Miss Scareall
Little Miss Scareall
Little Miss Scareall
Little Miss Scareall
