I walked up to your door,
Put my hand inside my pocket,
Pulled a rose out, and gave it to you.
Pinned it on your collar,
I looked into your eyes, and I saw mine

You've stolen my heart
(You've stolen my heart)
And you took it away
(You stole my heart that day)
This is the moment,
This is your song,
Your Serenade

Hand in hand, we stare into the sky,
Shining brightly,
Star shoots by, I name it after you.
This one's for you.

You've stolen my heart
(You've stolen my heart)
And you took it away
(You stole my heart that day)
This is the moment,
This is your song,
Your Serenade

I don't wanna say goodbye (echo)
To my angel in the sky (echo)
So high...

You've stolen my heart
(You've stolen my heart)
And you took it away
(You stole my heart that day)
This is the moment,
This is your song,
Your Serenade
