

My Shameful "Beneath"

Visit "Beneath" on MotoLyrics.com

Should the sun hurt my eyes
Then should I close them Should I seek hide from under Under soothing rock so heavy

Beneath the world will I hide till the end Beneath this soil will I find A resting place, warm and safe
I would not seek for knowledge
I just long for the silence Should I long for company Worms of earth will keep me

Just lay me down let me be all by myself sick of listening to your poisoned words sick of hearing of a better way sick of knowing what have I done

Bring yourself to see My demise Bring all you've got, and blame it all on me for I am here, dying at your feet See for one last time how I curse you all
