I am trying to remember all the things that I've know
They all shine, soft and stand alone
Like I picture you waiting at the end of a bridge
But it's hard for me to render up the things that we did
You playing doctor with the door unlocked
Kissing on your cousin and you both got caught
And this how the cleft was formed inside the silent ground
Those words in your mouth
Please leave us alone when we're dancing
Please leave us alone when we're dancing
Please leave us alone when we're dancing
Please leave us alone when we're dancing

Is your cheek still red from where you caught her hand?
Or are you just in love again
The search party's out yes they're hunting your name but all young lovers they look the same
You were driving with your eyes closed 75
With you foot to the floor and your head to the sky
And this is how the cleft was born inside the silent
Those words in your mouth
Please leave us alone when we're dancing
Please leave us alone when we're dancing
Please leave us alone when we're dancing
Please leave us alone when we're dancing
