Wanted more than the world could give
And bear a child inside, dead already
With your fist that's bleeding from times of war

All you aim for is an untied breath
And for the case you'd fail you brought your knife along
I will be so sad to hear you're dead

Nature's built a wall around you
And that's the house you'll live in forever
Punch a hole into with your love

Don't you cry for I love your thought
Don't let your fiery soul burn down
We're in this together, we'll always be

Fight your war inside your jail
I see you fidget hard in your trap
Smashed your head at the wall, this far you got
