Would you stick your head in a lion's mouth if that's what brings them in would you kiss the bearded lady much to the breasted man's chagrin would you dance around with monkeys & a fire breathing man would you wear a skin-tight pink suit foolish pride be damned would you walk out on the wire with no safety down below Mr Frank Lee the pride of Henry's travelling show

He hails from some town in Georgia he stands 6 foot 7 tall hen can make a crowd feel welcome impressed, uncomfortable, & small he is Henry's biggest asset stars in every show each night in keeping with the Lee tradition never a stranger to spotlight he can crawl inside a breadbox & how he does nobody knows
Mr Frank Lee the pride of Henry's travelling show
