"Time Marches On"

You know
We go Through life and all its wonders like a race that's to be won
Slow down, care for the moments remaining
In time
Our lives, they seem a moment in time
We'll see the truth and nothing more
As time marches on....

We should Cherish
The time we have together, 'cause we won't be back again!
You know,
Love is the only forever
In time.
Our lives, they seem a moment in time
We'll see the truth and nothing more
As time marches on....

What is life except a stage?
You spend the years rehearsing for another time that's yet to come
And all your works and all your dreams and all your thoughts are
Just a mote in the eye of eternity
Yet there's a reason for it all
There is a place for us if we don't give into the hand time
This portion of the dream that we can see is not the real world --

Time to awaken!
