Left alone; no one could see me
My innocence was gone Thinking if I dared I was so confused! So possessed An angel to my left is whispering Forget this all think and regret
When the sky turns red You'll know that I was there

Control yourself Believe...

Chorus

Teach me how to fly!
Like the angels Take me high My hands are so full of shame
Please
help me stop this pain
And kill my haunting regrets.
