Lady Grey you know how to rub me up the right way
And you're just the kind of mess I'm looking for today

You're just so
You're just so

And m'Lady Grey, girl you kiss like you don't even know
What day it is

And you don't
And you don't

And I hope you feel the same way too my love, my love
And I hope you feel the same way too my love

But will you still love me in the morning
And will you still answer when I'm calling
Yeah will you still love me in the morning
In the morning
In the morning

And m'Lady Grey,
Well you scrub up well but I wasn't born yesterday
And if life deals you lemons, you make lemonade

As you know
As you know

And I hope you feel the same way too my love, my love
And I hope you feel the same way too my love

But will you still love me in the morning
And will you still answer when I'm calling
Yeah will you still love me in the morning
Well darling give me a warning
A warning

Yeah will you still love me in the morning
In the morning
In the morning, my love
In the morning
