Did you ever want out of this, out of this life?
Did you think about it love, from time to time?
Did you believe in everything they said,
They're saying things i just don't know?
How did you get so far from my friend, so far from home
Did you ever draw outside [these] (of) outside the lines?
Did you mean to make others hurt, from time to time,
Did I tell you evreythings been said ,
What they're saying its's so untrue
How could you ever let this life, get the best of you?

All these memories, but your still alone

Its crying time but there;s still love
oh & i tried so hard to get to you
I now i never meant
Never meant those things you've done
I never meant to leave you but It's crying time and theres still love did you ever go back and wish, wish you'd have shined did you ever feel less than low, or more than high?

did i tell you i believed everything they said, no of it true.
i could've been a better fried to you all these memories but we're still alone

Its crying time but there;s still love
oh & i tried so hard to get to you
I now i never meant
Never meant those things you've done
I never meant to leave you but
its crying time and theres still love
oh it and these trying times so hard for you oh its crying time this times (but there is still love) for you

Ohhhhhhhhhhhhaaah
Ohhhhhhhhhhhhaaah
Ohhhhhhhhhhhhaaah

Ohhhhhhhhhhhhaah

Its crying time but there;s still love
Oh & i tried so hard to get to you
I now i never meant
Never meant those things you've done
I never meant to leave you but
Its crying time and theres still love
Oh it and these trying times so hard for you Oh its crying times this time (but there is still love, theres still love.) this time for you
