As darkness fills the void.
Violet screams lost in a canyon.
Catch yourself from falling down.
Paralyzed in a state of being..abide.

The pleasure sips out of keys to turn.
Left you burn ripe right to me.

Long rope binds
Broken strings unwind
Only you can truly find...

In this fear I'm blind
I wake up to the sunshine on my mind.
And every single day I try to find myself
Only I come back to abide.

Bloodshot eyes in the pitch
Ringing in my ears.
Hearing cries of loneliness
Can I help you?

The spiders crawl out to search for flies
From the web inside my head.

Lost hope binds
Broken dreams unwind
Only you can truly find..

In this fear I'm blind
I wake up to the sunshine on my mind.
And every single day I try to find myself
Only I come back to abide.
