Wish I could
Take your pain away.
Allow me to
Help you feel
The way you used to be
Before this.

I say the things I think will make you come out
Of the walls around your broken heart.

No one will ever
We are one together
Nothing will ever

Take the place
Fill the space
Replace what you
Lost in life once ago.

Seems to be
Something more than me.
It burns inside of you.
I'm here forever
By your side
Through every change.

I say the things I think will make you come out
Of the walls around your broken heart.

No one will ever
We are one together
Nothing will ever

Take the place
Fill the space
Replace what you
Replace what you
Lost in life once ago.
