When nobody knows,
I'll be there when you need me most,
Sing a silent song,
If you don't want them,
To sing along.

Don't wake until,
the black turns white,
the moment I'd no longer fight Don't wake until,
the sky turns blue,
the butterflies all dance with you.

When nobody knows,
I'll be there when you need me most,
Sing a silent song,
If you don't want them,
To sing along.

Don't wake until,
the black turns white,
the moment I'd no longer fight
Don't wake until,
the sky turns blue,
then butterflies all dance with you.

They dance with you...
They dance for you...
