Been looking everywhere
Holding out for you out there
Like an arrow through my heart
Here you are

I've had some lovers in my years
Our love has its own ideas
I got a history hanging 'round
Means nothing now

I feel your breath on my lips
When I close my eyes
I feel your skin on my skin
(Ã¢Â€Â¡) in the night

Its a warmth deep inside
It's a touch that never lies
It's a home to the soul
Growing old

I feel your breath on my lips
When I close my eyes
I feel your skin on my skin
(Ã¢Â€Â¡) in the night

Been looking everywhere
Holding out for you out there
Like an arrow through my heart
Here you are
