Just like a small ghost in a box full of thought, full of laughs, oh full of tears full of love, full of hopes, full of fears

Just like a blue fish in a tank I can swim, i can dance all day long in my tank, in my private sea

I've got my sun, my clouds, my rain I've got lakes, I've got high mountains to climb within me, within me, within me

High trees, tall boulders bow at me apes and snakes eat in the palm of my hand in my world, in my harmony

But when you walk through the door my sun, my clouds, my rain leave me but when your dark eyes hit mine my deep green jungle fades away
