Shit Shit

That's That Shit
[1. (1x)]

That's the reason the bitches be trying to get the worm out the zipper That's the reason niggas gon' have to learn that I'm the ripper
I scrape up crumbs and turn 'em into nickels Then bounce 'em into dimes then I turn 'em into flippers
I can't do my rhymes like you do yo rhymes cause it isn't
You can't make your shit try to sound like mine cause it isn't
I run right at the top of the line, get your mind right nigga
Murder was the case cause I shine at night nigga
The man with the braids in his hair, two tounded live
nigga
Let him fire nigga, I ride with five niggas Live from the west, bring it back home Ducked off in the Bonneville, blowing up the zone Roamin', cutting up on my cell phone Hundred miles per hour in the wind and I'm gone Watch them jails find the twenty inch wheels twirls Hoes hatin' in the back, fuck 'em girl I stand up like a pit, swingin' my big dick Take a picture, feet stickin' like scotch tape bitch
I swear to God I'll fuck over yay yay Have you sitting on your porch, gettin' pushed in your rocking chair

[1.] That's That, That's That (How should I put it?)
That's That, That's That ewwww
That's That, That's That (Watch it sucka, muthafucka!)

That's That Shit [2x's]

I come in to put my two cents on a two inch I'm tearing down the fuckin' building and the blue prints, any sign of intrudence Come your ass down here and ask them who the fool is Raise your hand and talk to the teacher, no, students, students
I like to sing a about the boota and the tooters Smoke the purple bubble gum, merge crazy blue vooda Ya'll past tense, I'm the black prince ruler Sharp shooter, chopatula to talula Point blank bitch, gone, gone Full blast turning up the water all the way on Hi, my name is, Mystikal I handle my business, deliver my lyrics ever since I hit the door
When I come around in this muthafucka your arms fall off
You can't touch me, your jaw break, you can't say nothing Fuck around and let my second wind kick in I better be makin' it sound like the booty that the dick went in Bitch!
