A breath in your ear
To let you know that I'm here
Creeping up from behind
Sleeping safe and sound
Feeling my way up and down
Wrap my arms around

The sun is setting in the tree line
Feeling my way around

Breathe what I fear,
I know you're here to take me down
Down, down, down, down!
Breathe in my sin, I give in, I going down
Down, down, down, down, down!

Rolling face to face,
Sinking into place
Two bodies become one
Touch your lips and forget
A stream of salt flavored sweat
Pouring down my spine

The moon is resting in the tree line
Sweat pouring down my spine

Breathe what I fear,
I know yo're here to take me down
Down, down, down, down!
Breathe in my sin, I give in, I going down
Down, down, down, down, down!

Breathe me in,
Breathe me in,
Breathe me in,
Breathe me in
