

The Gunpowder Kings "Aftermath Of War"

I walk across the battlefield as mines caress my steps Blood, contempt, and bullets only fuel my lust for
death
Rape, pillage, and murder, immolation of all the rest
Horror beyond nightmares, dissection by bayonets

Skinning the helpless bastards, their faces I wear with pride
To greet their grieving families behind a familiar face I hide

Civilians, I am not concerned
Fuck the medals I'd have fucking earned
War
War is my content
Death
Death is my intent Burn!

Blood, contempt, and bullets only fuel my lust for
death
Rape, pillage, and murder, immolation of all the rest
Horror beyond nightmares, dissection by bayonets

Save me
From my own hell
