We go from a to b but it's all a circle in the end
When the world's under water you get a sense of who your friends are
And who's there to help you and who's there just to pretend
If ever you need shelter, you know on who to depend Take the lyrics of this verse for whatever they worth
This is me extending my point of view to you of this earth
On the path of evolution, yes it usually hurts
And I know yes we as humans haven't through with it since birth
And I ain't no politician but my truth is my word
And I'm no college scholar but I hope these tax dollars Going to these helicopters and these certified pilots And guns with choppers and we can't even rescue our time
And it's my freedom of speech I don't mean to be hypocritical
But I'm seeing the battle like yes my vision's elliptical Where do you run when the situation's critical
We gotta be on the brink of a miracle
Cause I can see the heavens, open up wide
And the rainbow, with a colorful smile
And the sunshine shining down on you
Now it make me feel good, know what you didn't do
I'ma watch you shine, I'ma watch, watch you shine now
I'ma watch you shine, I'ma watch, watch you shine now
I'ma watch you shine, I'ma watch, watch you shine now
After all we've been through, I forgot to see you shine It's funny how the buzz dobber, still the pain won't go away Media don't give a fuck, just looking for some shit to say
No, this not a verse, this is my letter to the world
Cause asian boys and asian girls still crying, loosing hope like everyday Guess it's all we got, it's got my knees is god but still I pray
Soundtrack for my people, this was going on, Marvin Gaye

Tears fall, as I hope for sunshine in these cloudy days
And fuck y'all, using all crisis just to get paid
It's just me and my zo flag, I'ma make my country proud
Every show â€¦ scream loud Life might be tough now but what matter it's how it ends
So pound we here now, so right now, we born again
So put your hand up, we make history, bet award
And if I die, just let my daughter know what daddy stood for Gangster yeah but way more, girl you can ride forâ€¦ Go to the mountain top and saw the â€¦ flag, they can't ignore, they can't ignore
Cause I can see the heavens, open up wide
And the rainbow, with a colorful smile
And the sunshine shining down on you
Now it make me feel good, know what you didn't do
I'ma watch you shine, I'ma watch, watch you shine now
I'ma watch you shine, I'ma watch, watch you shine now
I'ma watch you shine, I'ma watch, watch you shine now
After all we've been through, I forgot to see you shine x
