Verse1:

Are you willing? Are you able?
Can you disappear for another year?
Will it kill you? Will is shame you?
Hide your head in the sand, break your mirrors
Bobby Dylan, Betty Grable
Offer me a smoke and a bottle a beer
Grab a blindfold and a cable
Cover my eyes tie me to this chair

Chorus:

Now don't runaway, it's a bright
day,
So much to say

Verse2:

Are you willing? Are you able?
I pose these questions again and again
Will it kill you? Will is shame you?
Every morning and every return
Bobby Dylan, Betty Grable
Only had a song and a smile to give
Grab a blindfold and a cable
These are too transparent and weak my friend

Chorus:

Now don't runaway, it's a bright
day,
So much to say
Disappear for another year
Hide your head in the sand, break your mirrors
Offer me a smoke and a bottle a beer
Cover my eyes
