This time is complicated
This time I won't screw up
This time I swear I'll show you
Please just don't give up

This time I'm falling faster
I can never get enough
Each time I'm landing further
But I won't give up

Please be my addiction
Please be my addiction
I love everything about it
And I can't live without it
I can't believe that this is real
So please be my addiction

This time I'll be there for you
If you'll only let me breathe
This time I'll risk everything
If you'll just let me in

This time we'll do it right
I can't let go again
No, don't say no again
It kills me inside
Don't let this be goodbye

Please be my addiction
Please be my addiction
I love everything about it
And I can't live without it
I can't believe that this is real
So please be my addiction

Cause I can't let you go

Please be my addiction
Please be my addiction
I love everything about it
And I can't live without it
I can't believe that this is real

So please be my addiction
Please be my addiction
