You orchestrate your life just like a melody
And your love just like a rhyme
Don't pretend, you knew just what it'd do to me
When you set my heart at double time

I had the world set up, panned out accordingly
Tides tugging in all the right ways
You came along and caused seismic activity
Ridin' high on a tidal wave

And I can't come down
I'm too far off the ground
I'm star-struck, I'm spellbound
But baby don't stop now

You make me so damn reckless
You made my life a hurricane
You make me so damn reckless
I've lost all sense of reality
And I don't want to fight it
I invite your insanity
You'll make me so reckless
For all eternity

Well mama thinks that I have gone crazy
And daddy thinks I'm out of my mind
Getting sick of em knowing what's good for me
But then again they're probably right

I can't stand it
I feel so powerless
I'm going places I have never been
And darlin' cause of you I'm now livin'

And now I can't come down
I'm too far off the ground
I'm star-struck, I'm spellbound
But baby don't stop now

You make me so damn reckless
You made my life a hurricane
You make me so damn reckless

I've lost all sense of reality
And I don't want to fight it
I invite your insanity
You'll make me so reckless
For all eternity

You orchestrate your life just like a melody
And your love just like a rhyme
Your love, your love
You make me so damn reckless

You make me so damn reckless
You made my life a hurricane
You make me so damn reckless
I've lost all sense of reality
And I don't want to fight it
I invite your insanity
You'll make me so reckless
For all eternity

So reckless, so reckless
For all eternity
So reckless, so reckless
For all eternity
