It's not a first time offence
Keep prayin this is her chance
To turn away and change her life
But will she make the mistake
And turn a new fate away
Her love was just a lie

She puts on her best red dress
Tonight she will knock em dead
It's clear what's on her
Clear what's on her mind

Come on baby, won't you take me
To the dance floor and show me you want more
Come on over here and please save me

Come on baby, won't you take me
To the dance floor and show me you want more
Come on over here and please save me

She's got it all figured out
And thinks she's running this town
But she'll discover soon enough
The amount of hearts that you break
Won't make the shame go away

She puts on her red lipstick
The signs of a love addict
It's clear what's on her
Clear what's on her mind

Come on baby, won't you take me
To the dance floor and show me you want more
Come on over here and please save me

Come on baby, won't you take me
To the dance floor and show me you want more
Come on over here and please save me

She's cryin out
She's lost it now
She's made it clear what's on her mind

Come on baby, won't you save me
Come on baby, won't you save me

Come on baby, won't you take me
To the dance floor and show me you want more
Come on over here and please save me

Come on baby, won't you save me
To the dance floor and show me you want more
Come on baby, won't you save me
To the dance floor and show me you want more
To the dance floor and show me you want more
