I can't make you understand
Cuz girl I don't understand
Why I am such a fool

Shoulda been a much better man
Cuz you went and you reached out your hand when you saw I was bruised
When you came I was lost
I was down
My heart was broken I was on the ground
You protected my heart from the rain
But I didn't give you the same
Im so sorry

Im sorry for not giving my heart to you
Im sorry for the shit that I put you through
Im sorry for my issues on trust
Only thinkin bout myself instead of thinkin bout this
thing called us

Im sorry for not giving my heart to you
Im sorry for the shit that I put you through
Im sorry for my issues on trust
Only thinkin bout myself instead of thinkin bout this
thing called us

Can we begin again?
Maybe even be friends again
Cuz I want so much more Baby let's take it slow or at least till your heart is sure cuz I know it's still sore

Girl I promise that this time I around, I'll be there for you won't let you down
No more hurt, no more trouble, no pain
I won't break your heart again
Girl im so sorry

Im sorry for not giving my heart to you
Im sorry for the shit that I put you through
Im sorry for my issues on trust
Only thinkin bout myself instead of thinkin bout this

thing called us
Im sorry for not giving my heart to you
Im sorry for the shit that I put you through
Im sorry for my issues on trust
Only thinkin bout myself instead of thinkin bout this
thing called us

Don't act like you aint never built up a wall After you've been hurt and then the next person comes along
You aint so quick to go believing in love cuz you don't wanna hurt again

And I know that you love me
And I know I can try to be sure you can trust me
Won't be the same
If you give me another chance
To show you that I love you
And im sorry

Im sorry for not giving my heart to you
Im sorry for the shit that I put you through
Im sorry for my issues on trust
Only thinkin bout myself instead of thinkin bout this
thing called us

Im sorry for not giving my heart to you
Im sorry for the shit that I put you through
Im sorry for my issues on trust
Only thinkin bout myself instead of thinkin bout this
thing called us

Im sorry
Oh baby why won't you came home
Only thinkin bout myself instead of thinkin bout this
thing called us
This thing called us
Only thinkin bout myself instead of thinkin bout this
thing called us
Come back to me, to this thing called us.
