I-I-I-I'm too young for that
I-I-I-I'm too young for that
(are you) buggin baby,
need to check yourself (cause i've) been with you and ain't nobody else (can do) what you do
but it's too serious, too soon
Not ready to make that move Yes I love you baby can't you see (but I) need some time to do some things for me (can you) need to slow your roll, watch your speed, it's cool
I know what i gotta do

Told you once, twice, then 3 times
lets take time to rewind
but i'll never get through to you
Always 2 steps ahead
when you knew what i said
and now i'm getting so over you (I'm getting so over You)

Let's cool it down
I ain't ready for that kinda noise
Hear me out
I ain't tryina meet your momma, boy
I'm too young for that
I-I-I-I'm too young for that Let's take it slow that's the kind of speed i wanna go you should know
I ain't ready for no marriage, so
I'm too young for that
I-I-I-I'm too young for that
Yeah

Get the feelin that i'm all in love but me plus you, it don't equal us this relationship ain't addin up I need some time to think it over

When you tell me that you love me do you really care tell me the truth
this isn't truth or dare
If you love me then you'll wait for me and you can't boy so its time to leave

Told you once, twice, then 3 times
(woah, oh)
(oh, yea)
(i'll never get through to you)
Always 2 steps ahead

I-I-I'm too young for that (What, uh)

[Evonne's Rap:]
Chill out baby boy
you gotta back up
you caught in my space
I gotta erase the things that you say the way that they changed
i got your name put on my chain and now you gettin all close you wanna take off my clothes
the thoughts in your head they gotta go (gotta go) you goin to fast
i wanna take it slow (take it slow) slow ya pace
i need my space
you actin dumb
cuz i'm too young i'm on the run
