See I didn't plan to meet him
I only wanted to chill tonight
Catch up with all my girlfriends
Maybe flirt if I see a face I like
But then he walked by
You should have seen this guy
Every girl around is looking
I don't think he's alone but I just need to know
Is that my competition with him

She sees me looking at you
She sees you looking at me
Hey baby
I can tell your girl is taking notes
And if you came here with her
I may just come in between
Hey baby
I can tell your girl is taking notes

I see her step away
Finally separate
It's time to make my first impression
We start to conversate
Then slowly move away
Then he spits his true confession
He says
He didn't come in here alone
I tell him, I already know
He swears it's only their first date
And he ain't feeling her anyway

She sees me talking to you
She sees you talking to me
Hey baby
I can tell your girl is taking notes
I know you came here with her
Don't mean to step in between
Hey baby
I can tell your girl is taking notes

She sees me smiling at you

She sees you smiling at me
Hey baby
I can tell your girl is taking notes
I know you came here with her
Don't mean to step in between
Hey baby
I can tell your girl is taking notes

She's been watching me
Checking me, tryna see
Who you wanna be with
Who you tryna be with
The truth is I like what I see
I wanna know you
We can do whatever
You don't have to tell her a thing

We can keep this between me and you uh
She looks at me, wanna do it like that
Taking notes with her pen, her pad
I see her style and it ain't that bad
The truth is, that it ain't that good
Would you be with me, if you knew you should
You will, you might, you wish you could
Have a girl this good but oh so bad
Bet you didn't know that I came from the hood
Mami on the defense, she's tryna block
If you wanna ball, let me take that shot
Take that chance, make that change
Why would you be with a girl so lame
Real me, real talk, no game
I'm a prize you should come claim
You would look good as my man
So you should leave her where she stands uh

I guess it's over
I guess it's over
I can tell your girl is taking notes
I guess it's over
I guess it's over
I can tell your girl is taking notes

She sees me looking at you
She sees you looking at me
Yea baby
I can tell your girl is taking notes
I know you came in here with her
Don't mean to step in between
No baby
I can tell your girl is taking notes
