She's blonde as can be
That works for me
Eyes that flash like streetlights
Cash big screen TV
She's perfectly free
Dresses in DKNY

Close the door
Lay down your attitude
Make-up rocks
But freedom knocks
Let me in
I'll show you gratitude
There is no need to pretend

She's another work of art
And she knows it, oh
How she shows it
Just another work of art
(Da Vinci, yeah)
All the girls behind
Every man in line
Working wonders
With her tail-lights
She's another work of art
(She likes me) oh yeah

Walks like she doesn't care
A body to fear
Worshiped by pale star trek-nerds
Talks with words soft as air
Men stop and stare
Thinking "this is so unfair"

Close the door
Lay down your attitude
When we're alone
You're off your throne
Let me in
I'll show you gratitude
Lay all your issues aside

She's another work of art
And she knows it, oh
How she shows it
(Hahaha)
Just another work of art
(Da Vinci, yeah)
All the girls behind
Every man in line
Working wonders
With her tail-lights
She's another work of art
(She likes me) oh yeah

She's a Mona Lisa always smiling
She's another angel in the Sistine chapel
And she's mine, yeay!

She's mine
She likes, me, me, me
She likes, oh
She likes me

She's another work of art
(She likes me)
And she knows it, oh
How she shows it
(She likes)
Just another work of art
Da Vinci, yeah
(Hahaha)
All the girls behind
(All the girls behind)
Every man in line
(Every man in line)
Working wonders
With her tail-lights
She's another work of art
She likes me

She likes me, yeah
She likes me
She likes me, eh, yeah
She likes
Da Vinci, yeah
