Don't be scared
To just let it slide Swallow your pride
When you're coming undone

Cos Its alright, Its Ok
I'll be your cotton wool
And I'll soak it all Away

And you can slide like a wheel on water
I will be your lungs
when you can't come up for air

Cos I can take us to Paris
I can get us to Rome
We can drive all night If you don't want to go home
Move the sea a little closer
If you cant see it from your door
Cos I'm your friend

So the stars
Have just disappeared Cos this city sucks them up like stolen tears

Well its alright,
Its Ok
Cos you know they're still there and you'll see them some day Don't you want to slide like a wheel on water Don't you know if the world was flat I'd jump off the edge for you

I can take us to Paris

I could get us to Rome
We can drive all night
If you don't want to go home

Move the sea a little closer
If you can't see it from your door
And if you need me

Just believe me
I'm standing with my arms open wide
I'll never leave your Side
And if you need me

Just believe me
I'm standing with my arms open wide
I'll show you the way — every day

You can put it all on me Cos I'm your friend
