Everybody wants to say something
Everybody wants to lead the way
The most of what I ever wanted
Used to fall in the rain

It seems if you have some doubt
And you want to push me right over
All you gotta do is make it clear
And pull the mat from under

I think you've been telling me
Everything I need to know

(Chorus)
Your talk is cheap
And when you scream louder
You'll get what you really need
Amongst the pieces of all the doubt
You'll be remembered
When you scream
When you scream loud
When you scream louder

Does it always feel the same
Sinking below this level
Washed away in mistakes
Are any words that really matter

You could steer me
Little by little down this lane
But I've got a sneaking suspicion
Your not coming back this way

I think you've been telling me
Everything I need to know

(Chorus)
Your talk is cheap
And when you scream louder
You'll get what you really need
Amongst the pieces of all the doubt
You'll be remembered
When you scream

When you scream loud
When you scream louder

(Bridge)

I should of let you be right
I should of let you escape
I should of let you be right
I should of wished you on your way

(Chorus)

Your talk is cheap
And when you scream louder
You'll get what you really need
When you scream loud
