Go down
Go down to the edge of town
Watch as the lights go out
It's alright
That you feel slightly out of tune

You know
You know it's your time to leave
The town's putting chains around your feet
It feels cold I know love
You feel homeless in your home

But looking back with different eyes your town will be a bubble in disguise
You'll see the streets
You'll see your home
See it and you'll take it along
Go down

Go down
Go down to the edge of town
You walk down the road that leads away
It's your time now love
Pack your bags and wave goodbye

And looking back with different eyes your town will be a
bubble in disguise
You'll see the streets
You'll see your home
See it and you'll take it along

It's time to go
It's time to go now love
Time to go
Go now

You'll see the streets
You'll see your home
See it and you'll take it along

So go down
Go down
