broken, beaten down and cracked Picked up the pieces, didn't look back been crawlin down on my knees begging for some kind of sympathy and I don't want to feel this way again I don't want to care about anyone cause I'm not bulletproof I'm not bulletproof

but I want to be with you yeah, I want to be with you

I've drank enough to drown myself woken up with stories I could not tell Bit my tongue and spit out lies stolen, cheated, crossed out warning signs

and I don't want to feel this way again
I don't want to care about anyone
cause I'm not bulletproof
I'm not bulletproof
but I want to be with you
yeah, I want to be with you

but I'm not bulletproof
I'm not bulletproof
but I want to be with you
but I'm not bulletproof
bulletproof
But I'm not bulletproof
Bulletproof
Oh, I want to be with you Yeah, I want to be with you
