This one's for Tibet, the rooftop of the world
It became the homeland of the banned
A nation punished for no sin
Forced to live under a cruel command
But they hold their heads up high
Struggle in a non-violent way
But the scream fades to a whisper
if we don't act today

Shout out for freedom
Shout out for freedom
Shout out for freedom
Shout out for freedom
Shout out, Scream loud, shout out, scream loud!

Why should you care about far away Tibet?
When you haven't been there at all
'Cause Buddhist Tibet is the example
Of fighting back with a peaceful call
Instead of blowing up Chinese buildings
They reach out for a conversation
So the world should not ignore this suffering nation

Shout out for freedom
Shout out for freedom
Shout out for freedom
Shout out, scream loud, shout out, scream loud!
