Lay your burden down

It's all right to stop it all,

just stop it all right now.

And I don't care, I don't care where you've been

It's all right, I don't care, just set it down and come in.

Lay your head right down

It's all right to forget it all, just forget it all right now, right now

And I don't have, I don't have any place to be

It's all right, just lay yourself down, lay it down on me, on me.

And you wear the night like your skin but it's good to see you again

And we're all leaving something that we've been

But there comes a time on the road

You've been out in the cold

You'd better stop...put down your loan

And come in
