People on a train watch

the world go by

People on a train do not wonder why

They go near...they go far

Oh my...what a lot of tracks there are

People on a plane watch the clouds fly past

People on a plane moving much too fast

They go high...they go low

Oh my...what a lot of miles they go

People in my life like to walk real slow

People in y life got no place to go

They say hey...come and stay

Oh my...what a lot of love

they give away

But people in this world were not built to last

People in a cage going nowhere fast

Do not hear...do not see

Oh my...people keep away from me

But life is beautiful and time will carry on

And you, you are beautiful and people...oh my people

Oh my people...it won't be long
