I cannot reach your hand
Digging you out won't ease the pain
And I'm doing all I can
But I still think of you in my darkest times
I was reckless and gullible
It got gruesome when you called the shots

Will you let me sleep?
Whiskey tends to make me sick
As I've drowned my pain in it
On sleepless nights

It's over, we've parted ways, when you became a stranger to me
It's time to surrender it's time to bleed
Your arms are no place for the rest I need
But I thought we would still have each other
When everything else is gone

Will you let me sleep?
Whiskey tends to make me sick
As I've drowned my pain in it
On sleepless nights

It's over, we've parted ways, when you became a
stranger to me
