I should have known it was over
It's just another re-run
That always ends with her driving into the sun
There goes another one

There goes another one
Another last chance that I'm never gonna get back
There goes another one
I said that I was sorry, sorry don't mean jack
I've changed my ways; little too late
There goes another one

I've had my share of misfortune
And I've had my fun
When the oasis has faded I'll come undone
There goes another one

There goes another one
Another last chance that I'm never gonna get back
There goes another one
I said that I was sorry, sorry don't mean jack

I've changed my ways; little too late
There goes another one

And it's all my fault I'm the one to blame
And if I had it my way I'd do it all again

There goes another one
Another last chance that I'm never gonna get back
There goes another one
I said that I was sorry, sorry don't mean jack
I've changed my ways; little too late
There goes another one

I've changed my ways
There goes another one
A little too late
There goes another one

I've changed my ways
A little too late

There goes another one
