"Time Bomb"

Don't call me in today
To work my life away
Already given in my mental resignation

Don't wanna hear about
How bad you're stressing out
And how I should be more like Carl in accounting

Your lips are moving but I don't know what you're saying
I'm thinkin' dirty thoughts a million miles away
I really wish that we could have this conversation
But you've got nothing to say

I've got the time bomb tickin' in my head again
Time bomb tickin' in my head again
It's one step closer to the very end, for you

When I come home to you, all that I wanna do
Is turn the T.V on and stare up at the ceiling
Don't wanna talk about, what you can't live without

And how the world should be revolving around you

Your lips are moving but I don't know what you're saying
I'm thinkin' dirty thoughts a million miles away
I really wish that we could have this conversation
But you've got nothing to say

I've got the time bomb tickin' in my head again
Time bomb tickin' in my head again
It's one step closer to the very end, for you

Hey yea everybody run for cover
I'm sinking everybody's going under

Time bomb tickin' in my head again
Time bomb tickin' in my head

I've got the time bomb tickin' in my head again
Time bomb tickin' in my head again

It's one step closer to the very end, for you
