Theres no other way to say this but i just cant take this anymore at first we were in love then something happened

we've fallen out out love
(fallen out of love)
we've lost that connection there's no bridge for us to walk over the bridge has broken down
we've fallen out out love
(fallen out of love)

this love that once was so strong has now faded out there is no way to re-connect this broken love affair

all is lost nowhere to be found the signals have been lost lost the way of getting back to you

(fallen out of love)
(fallen out of love)

my head is aching my head is spinning i feel so confused so lost don't know what to do where do i go?
what do i do?
I'm not sure where to go from here can someone help me out i can't take this pain anymore

(fallen out of love)
(fallen out of love)

i feel broken
i feel torn up inside i feel all alone in this world and everybody just stares at me cars go rushing by and I'm laying here on the ground in pieces, broken just trying find a way to survive seems like everytime i get up i fall right back to the ground

(fallen out of love)
(fallen out of love)
