VERSE ONE: I know these days haven't been easy for the both of us you've been living there and I've been living here (we're living two sides of the world apart)

VERSE TWO: I miss you I really do I miss you so bad and I wish I could get you back here with me (get you back, get you back) here, baby her with me CHORUS: I feel a little too headstrong (a little too headstrong) I feel weak when I think of you I fall down to my knees when I try to move on I stumble across the floor and my tears begin to fall I feel a little too headstrong (a little too headstrong) here this isn't how its meant to be no, no, no

VERSE THREE: How long, how long, how long now do I have to keep going through these motions cause my emotions are going crazy I'm so in-love with you

VERSE FOUR: But baby, baby, baby the love we shared together for so long has somehow faded out ooh ooh ooh baby I know that the connection we had has now gone I guess it's just another case of broken love

CHORUS: I feel a little too headstrong (a little too
headstrong) I feel weak when I think of you I fall down
floor and my tears begin to fall I feel a little too headstrong (a little too headstrong) here this isn't how

VERSE FIVE: ooh ooh I'd do anything, anything you asked me to get you back here with me (just to get you back) yeah just to get you back here with me I wish I could see you one last time so I can say how much I love you so that I wish we could make it work out

CHORUS: I feel a little too headstrong (a little too
floor and my tears begin to fall I feel a little to

floor and my tears begin to fall I feel a little to headstrong(a little too headstrong) here this isn't how its meant to be no, no, no{ECHOES}
