When I'm tired and I come home
After a long and hard day at work
I turn the key and I walk in and close the door
I drop my clothes and I climb into bed with you

You wrap your arms around me it feels so good
You start kissing my neck and
Now
We're making love beneath these sheets
Or hands touch and now our fingers are entwined
We're making love beneath these sheets
And it feels so right

When morning comes and the sun shines
I get up and close the curtains
Then I climb back into bed with you
It's Monday morning I don't want to go to work

I just want to be here with you, nowhere else
I just want to love you, love you always
I just want to put my arms around you and never let you go
Yeah, yeah, yeah/yeah, yeah, yeah

You can tell me that you love me a thousand times
You can run your fingers up and down my spine
And
You can kiss me on the lips
We're making love beneath these sheets
Making love beneath these sheets
