When I left my whole body, well I never could tell
Walking by myself I was almost in some sort of prayer
I know sometimes I know sometimes it wasn't time
It feels like
It feels as though you go to sleep away

Darling, you've got a lover's start
Got a lover's start
You've found another heart
Found another heart
I said you've got a better thing
I said you've gotta let my heart

Heal uh huh uh huh

When I left my whole body, well I never could tell
Walking by myself I was almost in some sort of prayer
I know sometimes I know sometimes it wasn't time
It feels like
It feels as though you go to sleep away

Darling, you've got a lover's start
Got a lover's start
You've found another heart
Found another heart
I said you've got a better thing
I said you've gotta let my heart

Heal

Down down down down
Down on it down on it down on it
