you're going to miss the wood everyone left the wood take what you can carry find a road and follow of course i'm supposed to work i come from the hills i find and eat food i try to protect i of course i like to laugh i look at the sky
look in your eye
all i feel is transition
when do we get home?
now to be alone
with a clear eye
but a clouded mind
i come from the fen i i left the den the wind blows no good it tells of a change that might re-arrange we can't see the ground it's not where it was
when do we get home?
now to be alone
the stars are indifferent to astronomy and all that we think we know mars will salute your autonomy but he doesn't need to know
when do we get home?
now to be alone
no-one wants to live this fiction where didn't we go wrong?

and a clouded mind
