Here comes the hot feeling again
When i hear his name
I clearly have no control
Can't help wondering

If herein gone like a wave
I forget but then, start rememberin'
The devil in my mind, why can't he go home
Are we on our way

I do not want to be in this song
So while the summer rats and their hats high

Where is the wind
Why does it feel still again
Can't think along these lines
I'm gonna live a long time
Not along these lines
I'm gonna live a long time

When it goes black it goes black so fast
No good state lads
What i get slow is how to bounce back

You'll have to invent what you lack

Now I turn to the seasons, the sleeping demons
I want your attention, your infection
For every new reason, do you know how i need it?

Oh your face and everything that you say
And Oh your face and everything that you say
And Oh your face and everything that you say

I almost washed us out talking to me
The call came like a wave of relief
I'm such a lucky mess
I just need some rest

Take me along
From now on
Take me along

From now on

I'm gonna live a long time [x3]
