Me and you
Got nothing better to do
Than to push each other around
In our own way
I'm gonna divine it
I'm gonna figure out the cause
Why we're both riding up and down
On my emotional flaws
Dig a deep shaft
Fill it with grass
Catch the alien ships
When they're gonna pass

Nothing is sacred
But everything's clean
Watch the silly humanoids
Always stuck in between
Everyone's down
Lazy and slow
Everyone's down
Everybody wants to know
Fully sketched out
But down inside
Still down inside
