You tell mom, I'll break your neck,
she's already a nervous wreck,
I don't do it every day,
It doesn't hurt me anyway.

Why are you so mean to me?
you'll regret eventually,
you watch way too much TV,
Why are you so mean to me?

I remember my first time,
I knew I had to cross the line,
I went home, I cried alot,
I didn't think that I'd get caught,

Why are you so mean to me?
you'll regret eventually,

you watch way too much TV,
Why are you so mean to me?

Why are you so mean to me?
Why are you so mean to me?

Why are you so mean to me?
I'll never be like you, I'll never be like you,

Why are you so mean to me?
I'll never be like you, I'll never be like you,

Why are you so mean to me?
No matter what you do.
